What CAI stakeholders say about Thomas Skiba

“Tom is an excellent CEO who successfully took the Community Associations Institute through some difficult times. I have had an opportunity to view his excellent administrative skills, knowledge of the industry and ability to work with individuals who are leaders of their own businesses. CAI is unique in that it serves many constituencies and Tom is adept at balancing the interests of all of those constituent groups. Part of a CEO's talent is assembling a competent and dynamic management team, and Tom has been extremely successful in identifying and recruiting top management.”

-Ronald Perl
(Attorney and Legal Educator)

“Tom is a dynamic leader with extensive international experience. He has lead our professional organization through very difficult and challenging circumstances to what can only be characterized as our best years yet”

-Steven Brumfield
